

"23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time"

Entrance Antiphon: "You are just, O Lord, and your judgement is right; treat your servant in accord with your merciful love."

Communion Antiphon: "Like the deer that yearns for running streams, so my soul is yearning for you, my God; my soul is thirsting for God, the living God." Cf. Ps 42(41):23

Reflection for this Sunday: There is a lot of talk in our country about discrimination in relation to race, sex or religion. However, we are all guilty of discrimination in ways that often go unnoticed. We treat people differently because of the way they talk or dress. We want those we respect to like us and go out of our way to be nice to them while ignoring those we feel are "beneath" us. This is discrimination. It is passing judgement on those we have decided are not worthy of our time, attention, and respect. Make an effort to treat everyone you meet with the reverence and respect that you would give to Christ.

Dearest Mother Mary,
 your conception was immaculate and your birth glorious. You were conceived without sin, born without sin, and remained sinless throughout your life. In Heaven, you radiate the beauty and splendor of God and will do so for all eternity. Please pray for me, that I will more fully imitate your many virtues, so that I can be a fitting instrument of your divine Son in the world. Amen
