

“27th Sunday in Ordinary Time”

Entrance Antiphon: "Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all." Cf. Est 4: 17

Communion Antiphon: "The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him." Lam 3: 25

Reflection for this Sunday: The readings for this Sunday offer profound insights into the sanctity of marriage, the central role of family, and the necessity of a childlike trust in God. In the Genesis account, God creates woman as a partner for man, showing that marriage is a divinely intended union of equals. This partnership is meant to be one of mutual respect and support, symbolized by the creation of woman from man’s rib, and emphasizes that marriage is not merely a social contract but a sacred bond blessed by God. Jesus reinforces this in the Gospel by stating that what God has joined together, no one should separate, underlining the lifelong commitment of marriage. The readings also highlight the importance of family as the basic unit of society, where love, care, and faith are fostered. Jesus’ tender love for children in the Gospel reveals the value God places on family and the duty to care for and guide children in a nurturing environment. Furthermore, Jesus teaches us that to enter the Kingdom of God, we must trust in God like children, with complete dependence on His love and care, free from worry or the need for approval from others. Together, these readings call us to live out unity, love, and trust in our marriages, families, and in our relationship with God, helping us grow in faith and build stronger, more loving communities.

Calling All Singers! Seeking voices to sing a mix of carols and choral pieces to help prepare our hearts for Christmas at the 2nd Annual Clinton-Franklin Deanery Festival of Lessons and Carols on December 8th Rehearsals Begin Wednesday, October 9th at 6:00 PM At St. John the Baptist Church: 18 Broad Street, Plattsburgh For more information, contact Nate Pultorak: Natepul29@gmail.com

Thank you to all the volunteers who generously gave their time and effort to make the Harvest Dinner a grand success. Your dedication and hard work truly brought our community together and made the event unforgettable!

Volunteers Needed for Religious Education! We are in great need of volunteers to help with our Religious Education Release Time Program. If you have a heart for sharing your faith with young people, we encourage you to consider becoming a teacher or an assistant. This is a rewarding way to make a difference in the lives of our students as they grow in their relationship with God. Our Religious Education program is on Mondays.

- High School: 8:10 am - 8:45 am
- Elementary: 1:30 pm - 2:10 pm

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact our parish office at 518-594-3907. Together, let's guide the next generation on their faith journey!

Vote “NO!” on Proposition 1: Proposition 1, also called the “Equal Rights Amendment,” will be on the ballot for all New Yorkers during the 2024 election. It is not really about equal rights at all. The language is deceptive. If Proposition 1 passes, unrestricted abortion will be enshrined in the NY State constitution; children will be able to seek medical treatment (including puberty blockers and gender surgeries) without parental consent; men will be allowed in women’s sports and other spaces; and Catholic institutions could be forced to support and promote sexual morality that is contrary to Catholic doctrine. For more information, go to www.protectkidsny.com. A letter signed by all of the New York’s bishops, titled “Proposal 1: A Wolf in Sheep’s Clothing,” is available at <https://www.nyscatholic.org/posts/proposal-1-wolf-sheeps-clothing>.

Craft Show: The Ladies of St. Ann Craft Show will be held on Saturday, October 19th from 9 am to 3 pm at the Mooers Fire Station, Route 11, Mooers, NY 12958. Craft and non-craft vendors, michigans, baked goods, and raffle. Accepting nonperishables and monetary donations for the Mooers Food Pantry.
