Reflection for this Sunday: The 5th Sunday in Ordinary Time invites us to reflect on God’s holiness, our unworthiness, the power of His grace, and our call to follow Jesus. In the readings, Isaiah is overwhelmed by God’s glory, Paul acknowledges his past failures, and Peter falls to his knees in humility—yet God calls each of them to serve. Their stories remind us that God does not seek perfection but willing hearts. His grace transforms our weaknesses into strength, enabling us to share our faith and live as His disciples. Like the fishermen who left everything to follow Jesus, we, too, are called to trust in His plan, let go of what holds us back, and commit ourselves to His mission. May we embrace His call with humility and courage, trusting that He will guide and equip us for the journey ahead.

Monday, February 10th—Friday 14th, 2025: No Weekday Masses, Fr. Tojo is away on a Retreat.

Prayer for Vocations

Lord, you call us all by name to follow your path. You always bless your Church and guide your followers to become leaders who think of others before themselves. Mold us in the image of your Son, to respond to your call as Sisters, Priest, Brothers, Deacons, and Lay servants of the Gospel. Embolden us all to grow in knowing you, and allow this knowledge to open our hearts, minds and souls to you enduring call. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen
