

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God. Ps 95 (94):6-7

Communion Antiphon: Let then thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things.

Reflection for this Sunday: According to the gospel this weekend... we are called to be "good-for something" - real and active ingredients in the mix of life..... not just unfathomable religious observers who undertake mysterious repetitions of rituals without any reference to the world around us and having no impact on the lives of those around us, especially those in need. No, Jesus came to show us that being part of the family of God is something that all are invited into, and authentic service of God has real and practical effects on the welfare of those around us. We are called to be Salt & Light.

Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless...Then your light shall break forth like the dawn.—Isaiah 56-7-8

The Pope's Monthly Intentions for February 2026: For children with incurable diseases, "Let us pray that children suffering from incurable diseases and their families receive the necessary medical care and support, never losing strength and hope."

Prayer for Vocations

Lord, you call us all by name to follow your path. You always bless your Church and guide your followers to become leaders who think of others before themselves. Mold us in the image of your Son, to respond to your call as Sisters, Priest, Brothers, Deacons, and Lay servants of the Gospel. Embolden us all to grow in knowing you, and allow this knowledge to open our hearts, minds and souls to you enduring call. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Amen
