

Order of the Mass #140
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: "Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the end of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice." Cf. Ps 48 (47): 10-11

Communion Antiphon: "Come to me, all who labor and are burdened, and I will refresh you, says the Lord." Mt 11:28

Reflection for this Sunday: This weekend, as we celebrate the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, our nation also marks a remarkable milestone—the 250th Anniversary of the United States of America. With grateful hearts, we thank Almighty God for His abundant blessings upon our country throughout these two and a half centuries. We remember with deep gratitude our Founding Fathers, all who helped shape our nation, and especially the brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice to defend the freedoms we cherish today. Their courage and sacrifice challenge us to be faithful stewards of this precious gift of liberty. As we celebrate this historic anniversary, let us pray that God will continue to guide our nation in wisdom, justice, unity, and peace, so that future generations may inherit a country rooted in faith, compassion, and hope. The Scriptures this Sunday remind us that true greatness is found not in power but in humility. The prophet Zechariah foretells a King who comes in peace, and in the Gospel Jesus invites each of us, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." In a world filled with anxiety and uncertainty, Christ offers the peace that every human heart longs for. As we give thanks for our nation's past and look with hope toward its future, may we also entrust our own lives, our families, and our parish to the gentle care of the Lord. May His peace reign in our hearts, our homes, and our country. God bless you, and may God continue to bless the United States of America.

July 4 Independence Day

Father of all nations and ages, we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many peoples to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the peoples of the earth. Through our lord Jesus Christ, your son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the holy spirit, one God, for ever and ever . Amen
