

Order of the Mass #140

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Antiphon: "Look to your covenant, O Lord, and forget not the life of your poor ones for ever. Arise, O God, and defend our cause, and forget not the cries of those who seek you." Cf. Ps 74 (73): 20, 19, 22, 23

Communion Antiphon: "O Jerusalem, glorify the Lord, who gives you your fill of finest wheat." Ps 147: 12, 14

Reflection for this Sunday: The readings for the Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us that God is always present, even when His presence is not immediately obvious. Elijah, weary and discouraged, expects to encounter God in dramatic displays of power, but instead discovers Him in the gentle whisper that speaks to a quiet and attentive heart. The Psalm assures us that God's mercy, truth, justice, and peace remain constant, giving hope to all who place their trust in Him. St. Paul expresses his deep love and sorrow for his own people, reminding us that genuine faith always leads us to pray and sacrifice for the salvation of others. In the Gospel, the disciples struggle against the wind and waves until Jesus comes to them walking on the water. Peter boldly steps out of the boat in faith, but when he focuses on the storm instead of Jesus, fear overwhelms him and he begins to sink. Immediately, Jesus reaches out His hand, lifts Peter up, and calms the storm, revealing that He is always near in our moments of doubt and distress. These readings encourage us to seek God not only in extraordinary moments but also in the quiet of prayer, Scripture, and everyday life. They remind us that faith does not remove life's storms, but it gives us the confidence to face them, knowing that Christ is always with us, ready to strengthen us, restore our courage, and lead us safely to the peace that only He can give.

Prayers for Kindness, Compassion & Empathy

Lord, open my heart to kindness, compassion, and empathy. Help me see others as You see them—with love and understanding. Guide my words to be gentle and my actions to reflect grace in all I do. Teach me to bring comfort to those in need and show forgiveness, just as You forgive. May my life be a reflection of Your light and kindness every day, so I may serve others with a caring and humble spirit. Fill my heart with Your love and guide me to make a difference in the lives of those around me.
Amen.
